Contemporary British Cuisine at Cheneston's Restaurant

We would like to wish all our guests the warmest welcome to Cheneston's which takes its name from the old English for "Kensington".

Chef Kim Sjobakk and his team are committed to using sustainable supplies wherever possible and the very best seasonal ingredients, sourced from around the British Isles for our menu.

Included within the menu are favourite dishes from Beatrice Tollman, President and Founder of the Red Carnation Hotel Collection. These recipes have either been passed down in the family or discovered while travelling, and all have been perfected from her personal experience and expertise in the kitchen.
